

Gardelux wardrobes and roomdividers for a personal welcome.
Function meets design.

SPACES INSPIRED

WITH SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Frame Katen

Frame Katen is a superior wardrobe system. The use of rich textiles and smooth aluminium frames with state of art anodized colourings underline its beauty. The soft touchable materials are in perfect balance with the woodpanels or beautiful BN wallpaper. A final touch can be given by selecting Hangaa hangers or elegant hooks; silky coloured, sawa like shapes or with wooden or porcelain inlay. Explore the endless possibilities of The Kabuki Collection: the elements can be varied as you like it. Exclusive design by Studio Edward van Vliet.

gardelux®

1e Industrieweg 1 | 4147 CR Asperen
The Netherlands
+31 (0) 345 . 634 888
info@gardelux.nl | www.gardelux.nl

ALUMET

Alumet is a specialist in anodizing aluminium. This dutch company is wellknown for a its knowlegde of anodization and its own techniques and colourings. For Gardelux, Alumet has reached new heights by anodizing aluminium wardrobe frameworks in gold, bronze and silky raspberry red.

JUDITH BLOEDJES

Judith Bloedjes (1968) is a visual artist. She designs and manufactures highly wearable porcelain jewellery. For The Kabuki Collection her unique handcrafted signatures on porcelain inlays give every 'Hook Hana' its own graceful and unique appearance.

BN

As one of the leading brands in the world for both contract wallcoverings as well as residential wallcoverings, BN is a trendsetter for many decades in the business for wall and cover decoration. Wonderful wallpapers from the Dimensions Collection are perfectly in balance with Kabuki Collection wall elements, both designed by Studio Edward van Vliet.